

Michigan District Royal Rangers

Junior Leadership Training Academy

PRESENTS:

Junior Training Camp and Advanced Junior Training Camp
June 25—27, 2026

Location: River of Life AG, Belleville, MI

Costs: $100 by June 16th; $120 after June 16th, 2026

Junior Training Camp (JTC) is the entry level junior camp designed to strengthen camping , leadership and soul winning skills of Royal Rangers. Rangers eligible to attend this camp will be in the 5th grade or older and be recommended by their commander. Earning the camping merit prior to attending JTC is recommended.

Advanced Junior Training Camp (AJTC) is for boys who have completed JTC. Boys are taught skills that build upon what they have learned at JTC. Emphasis is on advanced camping and leadership skills. The camp has a similar format to JTC, with the added responsibility of assisting with JTC training. Each trainee is given a work-book to complete and use at camp.

Applications will be available soon on the Michigan District Royal Rangers website, michrr.com. To have an application sent to you, contact District Training Coordinator Frank Fenbert at 734.777.5181 or at michiganjlta@gmail.com.
